FILING DISPOSITIVE MOTIONS: August 18, 2006

OTHER RELEVANT MATTERS:

No depositions may be scheduled to occur after the discovery cutoff date. All motions, requests for admissions, or other filings that require a response must be filed sufficiently in advance of the discovery cutoff date to enable opposing counsel to respond by the time permitted by the Rules before that date.

Motions to compel discovery are to be filed and served by the discovery deadline or within 30 days of the default or the service of the response, answer, or objection, which is the subject of the motion, if the default occurs within 30 days of the discovery deadline, unless the time for filing of such motion is extended for good cause shown, or the objection to the default, response, answer, or objection will be waived.

This case is set for jury trial on October 16, 2006

Pretrial Orders are due on October 6, 2006

~~A Pretrial Conference is set for _____.~~

This case is not appropriate for ADR.

The parties are reminded that pursuant to Local Rule 11(a)(1)(A), all motions, except motions pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12, 56, 59, and 60 shall be accompanied by a proposed order.

The opposing attorney may file a response to any motion filed in this matter. Neither party may file an additional reply, however, without leave of the court. If a party believes that a reply is necessary, it shall file a motion for leave to file a reply accompanied by a memorandum setting forth the reasons for which a reply is required.

22000-51128(RER)

At this time, the parties have not given consideration to whether they wish to consent to trial before the Magistrate Judge. The parties will file a written consent form with the court should they decide to proceed before the Magistrate Judge.

This order has been entered after consultation with trial counsel and pursuant to notice. Absent good cause shown, the scheduling dates set by this order will not be changed or extended.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
